Client Profile

Los Angeles, California-based ELP Advisors provide strategic counsel to leaders in public agencies, foundations, business associations, and civic organizations.

Business Needs

ELP Advisors needed a productivity platform to enhance business processes and to separate their email system from their affiliate company.

Solution

The company chose Purely Cloud and Office 365 Enterprise E3 to supply the power of Office with advanced services for messaging, document sharing, and compliance and management features for IT.

Benefits

- Office across devices
- Compliance simplified
- Advanced IT controls
- Reliability, security, privacy

Office 365

The new Office provides anywhere access to your familiar Office applications—plus email, calendar, video conferencing, and your most current documents—on almost any device, from PCs to smartphones to tablets.

Community Consulting Firm Chooses Purely Cloud and Office 365 Enterprise E3

"Purely Cloud successfully migrated us to our own environment from our affiliate company. We now have greater control, security and compliance."

—Jennifer LeSar, Managing Member, Estolano LeSar Perez Advisors

Situation and Technical Summary

ELP Advisors helps clients build better communities through strategic vision, guided by principle, and tempered by pragmatism. The firm provides fresh solutions to complex problems with our expertise in housing, workforce and economic development, sustainability, transportation, and community engagement. The Microsoft Office suite is heavily utilized for their work.

ELP chose Purely Cloud to split their email from their affiliate company for better management, security, and accounting. Purely Cloud migrated email from their old, shared tenant to their new tenant while also enabling advanced capabilities including data loss prevention (DLP), eDiscovery, and advanced malware threat protection.

ELP Advisors use Office 365 Enterprise E3 setup and managed by Purely Cloud to increase productivity and collaboration in the company.
